PRESS RELEASE

EMBARGOED FOR RELEASE
AT 2PM, JULY 7, 2015

Bud Light Villa Paradizo presented by Scion, the free EDM festival in Canada is back this year for a second edition with an incredible lineup!

Montreal, July 7, 2015 – In September 2014, Bud Light Villa Paradizo definitely exceeded expectations by bringing together more than 100 000 people for its first edition. The free EDM festival is coming back stronger than ever and is ready to get the crowd dancing again in the heart of Montreal. It will be taking Crescent street by storm on September 11th and 12th.

With Domeno back as the spokesperson and Carl Murèn as the official MC, Villa Paradizo will completely transform Crescent street for two days with a unique exterior atmosphere! From Sainte-Catherine to Maisonneuve, Crescent street will become a giant dance floor where everyone can dance to the music played by local and international artists.

Electronic music lovers will be pleased with the incredible lineup of DJs including some promising up and coming artists. Dutch DJ and producer Dannic will be starting the party in Montreal on Friday, September 11th! He is known for his many collaborations with the biggest names in the industry from Hardwell to Dyro to Sick Individuals, as well as for his releases with the Revealed Recordings label. Also, he is followed by almost a million people on Facebook. On Saturday, September 12th, the Cash Cash trio promises an extraordinary show. Not only did their song "Take Me Home" have over 16 million views on YouTube only, but the New York group have also seduced EDM music critics and have benefited from international support from acclaimed DJs and producers such as Tiesto, Hardwell and Nicky Romero. A must see!
